

House Resolution No. 2343

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding young Missouri citizen who has distinguished herself as a leader of her peers; and

Whereas, Cynthia Crowers of St. Charles, Missouri, is the winner of the 2003 St. Charles County Youth Leader of the Year award and a $1,000 scholarship; and

Whereas, Cynthia Crowers is a senior at Francis Howell North High School where she maintains an impressive 4.3 G.P.A while serving as President of the Student Council, Captain of the Varsity Tennis Team, and member of the National Honor Society, Drama Club, Mu Alpha Theta, German Club, and the Community Service Learning Program; and

Whereas, in her role as a member of the National Council on Youth Leadership, Cynthia Crowers attended the national conference held at Washington University and the Frontenac Hilton; and

Whereas, a member of the National Honor Roll who took Honorable Mention her sophomore year in the International Science Fair after taking First Place in her school and regional competitions, Cynthia Crowers looks forward to continuing her education at the college of her choice where she hopes to major in communications and pre-law before seeking a career specializing in women's law; and

Whereas, Cynthia's other achievements include attending Girls State, being chosen as an alternate to Girls Nation, taking Third Place in the GAC tennis tournament in the first singles, and winning the Vantage Credit Union's $1,000 Quest For Education scholarship; and

Whereas, an intelligent, compassionate young woman who volunteers at the Crisis Nursery, Habitat for Humanity, and Head Start, Cynthia Crowers has achieved all of this and more with the love and support she has continually received from her proud parents, Jack and Terry Crowers of St. Charles:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Cynthia Crowers at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing her only the very best of success in all her future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Cynthia Crowers, as a mark of our esteem for her.
